Sold, Sold, Sold: Last Corvette Sold for $660,000.00 with Juice... Prime-time in Scottsdale, the "Last" Sting Ray rolled across the block bringing a bid of $600,000.00 for a car with history and pedigree to spare. As a media darling, the silver coupe received top honors and awards all the while being filmed for a six-part mini-series for SPEEDtv. The "Last" Corvette Project was always intended to be more than a simple restoration and it out performed every expectation. To view the complete "Last" Sting Ray story from beginning to end, go to TheLastCorvette.com.

Sold Sold Sold: Buckeye Bookends Sold for $561,000.00 with Juice... The pair of 1963 Corvette Tankers, The Buckeye Bookends, faired much better than their OSU Buckeye namesakes did in Arizona this past January. The pair sold for a hefty $561,000.00 including the juice. The Tankers were perfectly matched as one was built for bare-bone speed and the other for road hugging comfort complete with all the bells and whistles. You can see more great Corvettes and maybe even build your own matched set online at ProTeamCorvette.com.

Sold With Juice... The "juice" is the 10% fee that the successful bidder has to pay on top of his/her bid.

The Chip Miller Charitable Foundation Receives $40,000.00 Gift ... ProTeam Corvette on behalf of The "Last" Corvette Project gave $40,000.00 to Lance Miller at the Barrett-Jackson Gala on January 14th, 2007. Since many involved with the Corvette hobby made this large donation to The Chip Miller Charitable Foundation a reality, we thought it fitting to reprint Lance Miller's personal thanks:

"Dear Terry and Fred, I just got back from Barrett-Jackson and can't seem to wipe the grin off my face, even after a couple of days to recover. I wanted to thank you two gentlemen, ProTeam Corvette and the Last Corvette project for your very generous contribution of $40,000 to the Chip Miller Charitable Foundation. You not only contributed a large amount of money, but managed to create a tremendous buzz about our Foundation's efforts in the fight against Amyloidosis. Your marketing strategy was right on the money. The Last Corvette Project took on a life of its own, generating a tremendous amount of publicity that in the end helped to support our cause. You should be very proud of what you've accomplished, not only for a worthy charity, but for the entire Corvette hobby.

Your generosity and support was over the top and we can't thank you enough. Your gift will not only help our organization raise awareness of Amyloidosis and related diseases but hopefully help to someday find a cure for this deadly disease.

I assure you my father was smiling down with that genuine smile that we all so dearly miss during the opening night Gala when you presented the check to the Chip Miller Charitable Foundation. It is nice to know his dream has come true... to help others in need. He's still making a difference today and will continue doing so in the future. Thank you for caring and sharing. Sincerely, Lance Miller, Carlisle Productions, Inc., Carlisle, PA."

Guess the Bid Contest Winner ... R.Carter of Loveland, Ohio had the winning guess of $598,000.00 (just $2,000.00 off the record setting final bid). The great news is that he doesn't have a buyer's premium or sales tax but cold hard cash that could make a great down payment on a ProTeam Corvette (just an idea). R.Carter's prize was matched and included in the $40,000.00 charitable donation made on behalf of the "Last" Corvette Project to the Chip Miller Charitable Foundation.

January 2007 Buying Spree (59 New Arrivals)... ProTeam traveled as far west as California and as far southeast as Florida in an effort to reload its Corvette inventory after a very successful year end clearance. We topped our best expectations by bringing back some of the best of the best and a few worthy barn finds. After braving three weeks of unusually low temps, tight scheduling, and high-energy auctions, the ProTeam Corvette Collection is back to full strength with 90,000 square feet packed with many NCRS and/or Bloomington certified award winners. ProTeam's January count: 3-1954's, 2-1957's, 2-1958's, 3-1959's, 2-1961, 5-1962's, 1-1963, 2-1964's, 4-1965, 9-1966's, 8-1967's, 1-1968, 7-1969's, 4-1970's, 2-1972, 1-1973, 2-1982, and 1-1996. Make an offer now before we spend time and money and make it harder to take a shorter deal. See them all at ProTeamCorvette.com.

Weekly Specials... have returned to ProTeam on select Corvettes. Check ProTeamCorvette.com often as this special pricing is for a very limited time.
