Tangibles versus Fantasy... Did your 401K turn into a 301K or 201K a couple of weeks ago? Many people I know still like to keep their money or at least part of it in tangibles, ie: collectibles, real estate, and, of course, Corvettes and at the end of the day they, at least, have something they can touch, use, and enjoy and not be at the mercy of the whimsical minute to minute greedy market shakers, market makers, and market breakers. Collectible Corvettes have a track record that transcends decades and their popularity knows no boundaries as evidenced by our customer base of 38 foreign countries and all 50 states. Food for thought!!

Barrett-Jackson in Vegas Does 29 Million... This auction event took place October 16th-18th, 2008 and again proved that there was no shortage of money for collectible cars considering that this was a first time event/location that took place shortly after the post bailout financial fiasco.

Only in America... Congratulations President-Elect Obama, even though I did not vote for you, you are living proof of how great our country is and the MESSAGE should be made to our youth that education is foremost... Get educated! Apply yourself! Stay the course! As in America... anything is possible!!! History is made in 2008!! God Bless America!!!
