1969 L88 Sells for $596,250.00... on October 8th, 2011 at the Mecum Dallas, Texas inaugural auction. This L88 T-Top was pretty much an unrestored car that received a 3-category Bloomington Survivor and also had an additional short list of show awards. One would certainly think with Texas's good economy that this car would stay in Texas but it found a home in the midwest. Comments? Email terry@proteamcorvette.com

Dana Forrester's "Nine Miles to Milford"... was the official Banner Art for the 2011 NCRS National Convention in Novi, Michigan. Because 2011 is the 50th Anniversary of the 1961 model year, Dana selected a white '61 to park beside a fictional wall sign advertising the Milford Proving Grounds. After viewing a Proving Grounds video of Zora Arkus Duntov driving a white '61 around the high oval, he thought it fitting to use an image of that action on this wall. This year Dana has begun a new special projects program; the Official Art for both the NCRS Convention and Corvettes at Carlisle's 50th Celebrations and organized a competition for the sale of the Original Art used for the Event Display Banners, all done in celebration of the Golden anniversary of the 1961 Corvette. The buyers of the original paintings saw their Corvettes as the subjects of the celebrations with banners created for both the Convention and Corvettes at Carlisle. More events like this one may be on the horizon. See the complete Dana Forrester portfolio and keep up to date on future events at www.danaforrester.com or you may email dana@danaforrester.com

Chandelier Auction Bidding... is normally phantom bidding, designed to make people think there's a competitor when there isn't one. Per Amy Cappellazzo of Christie's, "Chandelier bidding is, which is the auctioneer is allowed to bid on behalf of the seller up to the reserve price. So the point of an auction is that sort of canter, lively chatter, and get a little momentum going. So the auctioneer is allowed to bid on behalf of the seller and take bids, whether they exist or not, until they get close to the reserved price. That's part of the dance of the auction, part of the momentum, and part of the theatre that goes into it." So... when most thought it took two bidders I have always known that it only takes one bidder and a good auctioneer that knows how to read the trees, plants, tent poles, chairs, and of course, the chandeliers. This is a legal auction practice which is normally disclosed in your bidders agreement for auction of items with reserves. Your comments and/or questions are anticipated.
