Where are the Fire Sales?... This current lackluster economy should be ripe for buying fire sale Corvettes at giveaway prices but we have yet to have the first Corvette or Corvette collection offered to us at a so called "fire sale" price, as the owners must be well-healed and have wisely chosen to just hold their good cars as this was not the case during the 1988-'91 boom-bust situation that was driven by speculator/investor types that had no real love of the car but merely their R.O.I.

- If you have a desirable Corvette that you want to sell at a distressed fire sale price email: terry@proteamcorvette.com
