Winner of 23rd Annual Classic Corvette Raffle Announced... The winner of the 23rd Annual Classic Corvette Giveaway benefiting Saint Bernard Parish and School in Rockport, Indiana drove over 870 miles to claim his prize; a rally red 1965 Corvette Convertible valued at over $75,000.00. Dean Ferdico of New Jersey made the 14-hour drive overnight and arrived in Rockport Sunday afternoon. "I'm shaking," said Ferdico. "I can't believe this. This car is beautiful." Ferdico's name was drawn at the conclusion of the Saint Bernard Summer Social on Sunday, July 10. Nearly 9,000 tickets were sold for this year's raffle. People from as far away as Germany and New Zealand purchased tickets. A photo of the winner can be found proteamcorvette.com/raffle.html and to learn more about the St. Bernard parish go to stbernardrockport.org. Saint Bernard purchased the car from ProTeam Corvette Sales in Napoleon, Ohio. Tickets will go on sale for the 24th annual Corvette raffle in January, 2012.

Who do you trust?... A report released by the BBB (Better Business Bureau) categorized nearly a half million complaints into 70 different categories over a 12 month period. The niche market vacuum cleaner service received the fewest complaints (1,244) where as much maligned remodeling contractors were all alone at the top with 33,125 reports. Auto Repair (7,664), Finance Companies (5,921), Attorneys (4,628), accountants (3,909), financial planners (3,771), and bankers (3,246) all appear in the top half of the list. Used car dealers rank below local charities in the complaint department, albeit just one spot, sitting in the 42nd (2,638) position. We would like to think it was a testament to hard work in an industry that often finds itself in no win situations. We would like to think this downward trend will put us in the neighborhood of the chimney sweep (1,442) twelve months from now but only time will tell. What we can guarantee is at ProTeam, we will continue to work to make your Corvette buying experience exceptional so you can answer the question of "Who do you trust?" with an ecstatic "ProTeam Classic Corvette."
