Dick Lang's 1963 Z06 Racer wins American Heritage award... at the NCRS National Convention awards banquet July 25th. Ace mechanic Billy Rodenhauser first travelled to the April 2013 BG, KY NCRS Regional where the car received its sign-off nomination and then headed to Hampton, VA on July 20th participating in the five day NCRS National event.

The AMERICAN HERITAGE Award® was created by NCRS to recognize Corvettes proven historically significant with regard to the marque's legacy. These cars by their nature fall outside of the NCRS judging criteria. As for vintage racecars, they must have actual race history and be presented in the race form. It is an exclusive club. Only 2 to 3 vehicles per year have been accepted with only 36 Corvettes having received this award.

ProTeam found the famed Lang Z06 Race Corvette remains in New Carlisle, Ohio from the third owner who bought this car in 1977 for $250.00. Terry summed-up the car's recent history, "We found it. We researched it. We oversaw the restoration. And now we are displaying the Corvette at many concours invitationals around the country, including the big one at Amelia Island, Florida and at the Concours d'Elegance at St. Johns. We will be rewarded when we decide to sell this significant Corvette as we have received offers close to one million dollars."
