Dick Lang's Z06 Tanker Race Car Wins Best in Class at Dayton Concours d'Elegance... "It was a homecoming of sorts for the famous Lang Race Car as Dayton is only 15 miles from ex-Lang Chevrolet Dealership in Xenia, Ohio." Terry Michaelis, ProTeam president, spoke on the significance of the car's homecoming, "We were invited to participate earlier this year when the Lang Race car was on display at the Amelia Island Concours and again in June when the 1963 Corvette participated at the Ault Park Concours. It is fitting the car finish the show season in its 'hometown'." ProTeam's 1963 ex-Dick Lang Tanker Race Car finished the concours season with the Best in Class award at Carillon Park on Sept. 15th. The Dayton Concours d'Elegance is new to the circuit in only its 7th year and almost overnight has become renowned for hosting the most unique and historically significant automobiles in their marque. Among the most competitive classes is the Race Cars, All Years and Styles and the Dick Lang 1963 Corvette Z06 claimed top honors in this select category.
