Year End Sale... ProTeam's Year End Sale was a blooming success with fifty-three (53) sold cars generating just under $3,500,000.00 in sales... Wow!!! and thank all of you for your support during the 2007 season

Weekly Specials... ProTeam has just re-launched our popular weekly special prices on select Corvettes. ProteamCorvette.com/WeeklySpecials2.html

50th Anniversary Collections... Oh what a theme for the cornerstone of your collection or museum... How about a 1953 and 2003 Corvette with the same production number, VIN #39, ProteamCorvette.com/cars/373.1Y.htm, or a 1958 and 2008 Corvette with the same production number VIN #8189, ProteamCorvette.com/cars/5808collection.htm

The January Auctions... This past January we attended eight (8) collector car auctions from Florida to Arizona. They were the Barrett-Jackson, Gooding, ICA, Kruse, Mecum, RM, Russo & Steele, and Silver auctions. We found that the quality of credible Corvette consignments is decreasing year by year as it is becoming more difficult for the auction companies to attract high quality credible Corvette consignments as good cars have been and are being consumed by the end user enthusiasts and car collectors.

David Burroughs From Bloomington Gold Responds... Recently I asked David Burroughs his thoughts as they relate to "When to restore a Corvette"? We have recently sold some historically important unrestored, unmolested, low mile Corvettes that the customers are being urged by third party restoration shops to restore instead of preserve them. David's response was very enlightening and is a great read if you like words and phrases like, vandalism, preservation, typical factory production, historically accurate, historic perfection, cosmetic perfection, DNA, Survivor®, Benchmark®, desirability,, and value. It? Or Not!" by David Burroughs.

MEDIA COOPERATION... ProTeam has and will continue to cooperate with media (print, audio, film) as it relates to the Corvette... So, if you're looking for material and or the use of a Corvette(s) for an article or news worthy story, contact Beth Waisner.
